FORGETS.

cently addressed an invitation to Hon. Carl Schurz to deliver an address in Cincinnati. The following reply was received:

"New York, Oct. 28, 1899.—Dear Mr. Rattermann: It was a matter of regret to me to be unable to accede to your request to deliver a non-partisan address on imperialism in Cincinnati on my return trip from Chicago. This was partly due to my anxiety to reach home, and because a non-partisan discussion of this question is no longer recognized. I would be pleased if this question could be taken out of party politics, because if this is not done the only choice that will be left us next year will be between a party representing imperialism and sound money and another party which, in opposition to imperialism, will combine with it an unsound money issue.

"This alternative can only be avoided if the imperial policy is reversed and the first step necessary to that end is not alone the cessation of hostilities by a victory of our arms but the relinquishment of the Philippines. If the Filipinos are not granted their independence then imperialism will be the main issue in the presidential election next year, crowding all other issues into the background.

"I am of the honest conviction that the greatest danger that now threatens the republic is imperialism. I believe that it is our highest patriotic duty to set aside all party interests and do our best to avert this danger. It was to this end that last year I opposed the candidacy of Roosevelt for Governor in this state. I did this, although I was a personal friend of Roosevelt and worked with him for civil service reform. I believed then, and still believe, that his defeat with his imperialistic program and in spite of his new earned fame would have frightened the Administration in Washington from the annexation of the Philippines, and in this manner the danger would have been greatly minimized.

"Many of my acquaintances here, who were then of a contrary opinion, agree with me now that the result of the sacrifice would have been well worth the price. The situation this year appears to me exactly the same. If the fall elections result in a manner that the Administration and Congress are encouraged to further progress on the path of imperialism, then, unless unlooked for events should intervene, the main question that will confront us next year in the presidential election will be imperialism, and, to save the republic from her greatest danger, will require unpleasant sacrifice. Such encouragement to the Administration should be withheld at any cost.

"We are in the midst of a crisis in which every good citizen should regard it as his highest duty to make the less important subservient to the more important, according to his knowledge and conscience, and not permit himself to be governed simply by party consideration.

"With friendly greetings, yours,
"C. SCHURZ."

The Columbus Dispatch (Independent) says: "An interview with Hon. John P. Green, which appeared in the Cleveland papers, has struck like a bomb in the Republican ranks. Mr. Green, it is alleged, after rubbing up against many of his race throughout the state, finally ascertained that there is great dissatisfaction and in this interview complains of the treatment accorded him by the committee in not assigning him to speak.

He says that the committee gave him a sum of money and told him to go where he pleased, but would not assign him to speak. He complains most bitterly because of the refusal of the committee to assign him to Cuyahoga, his home county, where, he says, he has friends and his services are most needed. He also states in the interview that he does not agree with Senator Hanna's statement that there are no trusts, saying that "we have trusts and they are pernicious, illegal and dangerous." Mr. Green, it will be remembered, is the author of the Labor Day law in Ohio and has always been a great labor champion and he was the first and only colored man ever elected to the Ohio senate.

Chairman C. W. F. Dick, of the Hanna State committee, today prepared for publication in his patron's organs a long-winded effusion, purporting to be a warning against Democratic frauds at the polls, says a Columbus special. It is quite as absurd a production as could be expected from the picturesque blunderer in charge of the interests of "Boss Hanna," and can only serve as an illustration of the fact so long known that Dick is a political ignoramus.

He begins the matter thus: "As the campaign draws to a close the Republican managers are watching the McLean organization as Western settlers used to watch the quivering long grass that showed the whereabouts of Apache Indians, yet concealed them."

Having devoted a liberal amount of space to the Indians, Col. Dick indulges his imagination in nonsensical vaporing with regard to some kind of fraudulent voting scheme that he says the wicked Democrats contemplate. He grossly insults every Republican Election Judge in the state. He says that the Democrats intend to corrupt the Republican Election Judges by paying them large sums of money. He asserts that the Republican Election Judges will act in collusion with the Democrats, and, after throwing all witnesses out of the voting places, will count the ballots to suit themselves. Such statements as these would be regarded as simply a joke if it were not known to be the gibberings of the gentleman who owes much of his reputation to his historic check-book idiocies. In the course of his absurd remarks the hero of Santiago stoops to dragging in the name of a lady. But even this should not be surprising, for it is only in keeping with the combined imbecility and depravity of the Hanna campaign.

Judge Anderson is campaigning for George M. Anderson and no one else. He is alarmed at the outlook and has dropped the interests of all others in his fight to save himself. Distributing Agent Rowley has instructions to engage Anderson workers for election day at $3 per head. There will be several of these at each precinct. They are to work for Anderson and no one else. Chairman Stuart knows nothing of this arrangement. It was made without his knowledge or consent, just the same as all other plans of the present campaign are being made.

Hon. Samuel Dickie, national chairman of the Prohibition party and one of the publishers of the New York Voice of Chicago, will speak at the Main st. M. E. church Sunday morning, Nov. 5, and in the evening at the First M. E. church.

An important meeting of the Young Men's Prohibition club will be held in the W.C.T.U. rooms Monday evening.

The Cleveland Business Men's league, a Hanna organization, is to make a desperate attempt to coerce their employees into line for Nash. They are alarmed at the rapid growth of the Jones movement. In 1896, these same business men used the same tactics to obtain votes for McKinley. A meeting was held at the Hollenden hotel Friday. Plans were adopted to check the Jones boom similar to those used in 1896 to combat the silver movement.

SHE LEFT.

Summons Not Served.

Friends Notified Her That Action Was Filed.

Heard Motion to Dissolve Injunction.

Several days ago Sheriff Kelly received summons for Mrs. Mary C. Webster who was believed to be in this county.

She was the defendant in an action for a divorce, commenced by her husband, Frank H. Webster, in the Cuyahoga county courts. He is a brakeman on the Lake Shore railroad. He charged her with willful absence and gross neglect of duty.

The sheriff learned that Mrs. Webster was in Richfield and he went to that place to serve the papers. He informed a DEMOCRAT reporter Saturday that friends of Mrs. Webster had evidently notified her of the commencement of the action. When he reached Richfield she was not to be found and up to the present time she has not been located.

Foreclosure.
Mrs. Jane S. Steinbacher has filed a petition in Common Pleas court asking that a mortgage she holds, given by Lizzie Veon, be foreclosed. The amount due is $1,000. The property covered by the mortgage is the old Kidney house at Stow Corners.

Motion to Dissolve Injunction.
Judge Kohler heard a motion Saturday morning to dissolve the injunction in the case of Gilbert vs. the A., B. & C. railroad company. The defendant alleges that the fence of the plaintiff is in the road, which was established by the proper authorities in 1892.

Husband's Answer.
Mason Plant, the defendant in a divorce case brought by Mary Jane Plant, has filed an answer. He denies charges of gross neglect and drunkenness. He claims that she is not entitled to any alimony; that he furnished a house at Kilbuck and solicited her to come there, where he had steady employment with the Kilbuck Stone company.

Cross Petition.
The Akron Cereal company has filed an answer to the petition of Adolph Telkamph, who sued for $5,000. He was the agent in Germany for the defendant. He alleged that it had shipped him short weight packages of rolled oats and that a cartoon, which was supposed to represent the Queen, was so poorly executed that he could not sell the goods. The company in its answer and cross petition says that the packages were full weight; that the likeness of the Queen was submitted to and approved by him. By way of cross petition it is alleged that Telkamph agreed to purchase 400,000 packages of "Queen Oats." Relying on this the company had 400,000 cartons printed, 98,000 of which were used. Because of this there was a loss of $1,179. He agreed not to handle any other cereal goods. In violation of this he handled American Cereal company products, injuring the defendant in the sum of $5,000.

Naturalized.
Naturalization papers have been issued to Robert Lottridge, a native of Canada. T. W. Carter witness.

Calendar Entries.
The attorneys for the plaintiff in the case of John Falor vs. George Falor have been allowed $150 by the Court.

The case of Charles O'Neil vs. the Thomas Phillips company has been settled.

Postponed.
Owing to the absence of Judge Kohler the grand jury will not meet until Wednesday, Nov. 8.

Attend Sunday afternoon foot ball game at Summit Lake park. North Ends vs. Indians.
